- Class Time: Mondays 9:00-10:30am
- Tuition: $425/semester, due first day of semester, Zelle, Venmo, check
- Required Textbook: Homeschool Psych, 2nd edition, Tim Rice D. Min., LPC

Course Description:

This course will focus on learning about Psychology from a Christian perspective. Students will be challenged to use their Biblical foundation to understand motivation, needs, & behavior. As students gain a greater understanding of human behavior, their self-awareness, communication & relationship knowledge improves. Christians are better equipped to love & care for other humans when we understand their behavior.

Psychology is a popular class choice on college campuses. This introductory course is designed to expose high school students to the study of psychology from a Christian worldview before they go off to college.

Grading:

- 35% Homework
- 25% Class Participation
- 20% Quizzes
- 20% Tests

Late Work:

Homework is due at the start of class. 10% will be deducted each week for any late assignments.

NOTE: We will not have an in-person class on Nov. 3rd due to a family wedding. I will send out a link with a recording student will watch then complete the assigned homework.
